I have four CZ pistols, CZ P01, CZ P06, CZ 75 Compact all steel, and CZ 40 P. I replaced the plastic guide rods with stainless steel rods from CZ Custom and found.

This is a stainless steel guide rod for a CZ 75 Compact made out of 304 stainless steel.

I tried a stainless guide rod in one of my Glocks because I figured sooner or later the plastic one would wear down and sproing out the end. I noticed no difference.

The first Stainless Steel Guide Rod I purchased for my Sig Sauer P226 was excellent. It fit exactly and worked with no issues at all. Thanks

Steve, Just wanted to drop you a note on the stainless guide rod for my 226 Elite Stainless. Absolutely beautiful piece! Leaving now for the range to try it out.
